We are a renowned Trader, Retailer and Supplier of CNC Linear Guide, Camera PNG, Industrial Bearing and Hard Chrome Shaft. We are also manufacturing a wide array of Adapter Sleeve.

About Us

“Amar Bearing Centre”, an entity with client-centric approach was established in the year 1975 at Ahmedabad (Gujarat, India) and initiated its business as a Trader, Retailer and Supplier of high quality range of CNC Linear Guide, Camera PNG, Industrial Bearing and Hard Chrome Shaft. Our liner guide, bearings, shafts and other products are manufactured by our reliable vendors using quality assured raw material and ultra modern technology as per the industry set standards. Before their final dispatch, these products are inspected on several parameters. Provided high quality liner guide, bearings, shafts and other products are made available in numerous sizes, grades and specifications. Offered products are distinguished for their simple installation, rust free nature, sturdiness and high strength. Beside this, our clients can buy these premium quality products from us at affordable prices.

To bring only qualitative products in the market is our main objective and for this we are linked with some of the trustworthy vendors of the market. In order to satisfy our clients optimally, we stringently follow some specific quality control policies throughout our business process. We are blessed by a team of capable procurement agents, who select these vendors after deep market research. Our procurement department selects these vendors on the basis of their production techniques, market reputation, financial condition, price structure and delivery schedule. Due to our advance transports facility, safe shipment, transparent dealing process, moderate transaction, ethical business policies and on time delivery, we are rising very fast in the market.

Vast industry experience and in-depth market knowledge of our mentors, “Mr. Ali Hussain Jivani” and “Ali H. Jivani”, has enabled us to attain wonderful success in the industry.
